Science Week

Science Week began spectacularly this morning! Enormous thanks to Andrew Garrard (Emily's Dad in Blue Base) and Sheffield University for the loan of their equipment. Big thanks to Mr Lenagh (Science Coordinator) for organising the 'investigation boxes'. Each class will undertake experiments and investigations every afternoon this week.

On Friday morning Ted and Tilly's Grandpa (Yellow Base) who is a retired science teacher will round off the week with more exciting scientific events.

Phonics Meeting

There is a phonic meeting for Year 1 parents at 9am on Tuesday 14th March. This will be in the hall with Mrs Jones.

Can you Help?

Spare Clothes.

We are running short of boys trousers/leggings/girls tights and socks. If anyone has any spares would you pop them into Mrs Timbers please.

Uniform PE Kit

If your child has grown out of their uniform/PE kit please bring it into school as we like to keep a selection in school. Any donations gratefully received.

Parent Questionnaires

Thanks to everyone who returned the Parent Questionnaires. The outcomes will be quantified and then placed in a file at the bottom of the stairs should you like to take a look.

Pupil questionnaires are being completed in class this week. Again the results will be quantified and displayed.

Active Challenge

Your child will be bringing home a footprint to decorate for the Design a Footprint Badge Competition. Please return to the office by Monday 26th March.

Reading Volunteers

If you have a spare hour, morning, afternoon or day we would appreciate any time you have to read with our children. Everyone is making progress, the more times children read to an adult each week the more fluent they will become.

Please ask Grandparents. All welcome.
